

LOVE AND RESPECT MARRIAGE INTENSIVE TESTIMONIES

THE COVE - ASHEVILLE, NC – SEPT 16-18, 2011

- I just can't get over how much we got out of the entire weekend. It was an incredible, life changing experience we will never forget!!!
- My heart has changed. It is no longer broken. In fact, I am more in love with my husband now than I was when we first met. The fact that he was willing to attend the intensive and the spiritual gifts we received as a couple made this an incredible experience on so many levels. We have been blessed.
- I have been changed on many levels. Spiritually, I have a renewed sense of God's love for me as a person, and his will for our marriage. Psychologically I have experienced healing on a personal level, and see myself as a "wounded healer" instead of a victim. Mentally my attitude has shifted, and I have learned new logical ways to detach from my emotions during the heat of conflict. An amazing value for the money as I could have spent hours in couples counseling for much less of a result. Incredible!!!!
- It was incredible. I had attended a regular L & R conference in the past, so I knew that it would be life changing. However, no one could have prepared me for the incredible amount of information, healing and spiritual rejuvenation I would experience! The combination of biblical relevance, psychology, humor, love, support, useful tools, group sharing, and of course the intimate time with Emerson and Sarah are an unparalleled combination that cannot be beat. It was by far the best money we have ever spent as a couple, and an investment in our future that has already shown incredible dividends. Amazing and Life Changing!! We can't thank you enough!!!!
- The best investment possible. Where else can you get spiritual, emotional, and psychological help both as an individual and couple for one reasonable price???? Awesome!!
- If you are in need of real, concrete help and hope in your marriage, then the L & R Marriage Intensive is for you.
- Be prepared to be changed spiritually and emotionally as you unpack your personal baggage and embark on a journey of real healing in a safe, loving and supportive environment. Unlike other marriage seminars, you will learn real, "user friendly" tactics that can replace your old, knee jerk reactions. Emerson and Sarah and their amazing support team offer a life changing program that can save any marriage. Dollar for dollar, the very best investment a couple can make in crisis resolution and marriage rejuvenation. An amazing experience I would do again. God bless this amazing ministry!!!!
- It is a life changing, God focused event that brings you to a place of truly understanding your marriage in the context of Christ and scripture.

LOVE AND RESPECT

MARRIAGE INTENSIVE TESTIMONIES

- I would highly recommend it to anyone because Emerson has been able to put into a book what I could never articulate in 14 years of marriage and after three long years of separation seeing multiple counselors and attending multiple churches exhausting everyone with our situation Emerson comes through with love and respect something we both need and are excited to implement in our marriage. We would have been divorced because nothing else was working. PRAISE GOD FOR YOUR GENUINE LOVE AND COMPASSION FOR BROKEN MARRIAGES LIKE OURS!
- The material is presented in a very powerful, spiritual way. Compassion and understanding are evident in all the staff involved. An individual can engage in as much or as little as they feel comfortable with. Some of the presentation will require one to self-reflect in a new way but not seem overbearing or shameful. It will provide insight to their situation. Just do it!!!
- Go....get on the same page...mingle with other couples that are struggling...invest the time and the money upfront for blessed results. No regrets! ...and try to get to the Cove...an inspiring place to think about the consequences of our actions...good and bad.
- If you want your marriage to be truly blessed by God and want to see a complete turnaround in your attitudes toward one another, you need to be open to understanding your spouse. You need to be willing to "love and respect" one another. The way you can accomplish this is by committing yourself to attend a "Love and Respect" Intensive. Dr. Emerson Eggerichs, with the guidance and blessings of our Lord, will teach you how to unconditionally "love and respect" your spouse. My marriage was at its end and the "Love and Respect" Intensive has saved what I believed was impossible.
- I was so blessed and my eyes were opened to what I was doing to my husband by not respecting him. I will be forever grateful!! THANK YOU and May God Bless!!
- It is a must go if you want to give your marriage the best opportunity to move from being a high probable statistic of today 50/50 marital relationships to a marital relationship that has a 90% plus chance at making it with the principles that are taught being applied.
- We have attended Christian marriage conferences in the past and have certainly benefitted from them. However, the Love and Respect Intensive was so much more than we had previously experienced. The limited number of couples provided an atmosphere to really connect with others and understand that no matter what difficulties we're encountering in our marriage, we're not alone. And the opportunity for extensive interaction not only amongst the couples in attendance, but also with Emerson, Sarah, and the L&R staff made the experience truly invaluable. I would definitely suggest to couples considering the intensive to not only read the L&R book, but also consider either attending a L&R live conference, attending a video conference, or buying and watching the conference DVD's at home. Doing so will help you to truly see God's design for marriage that Emerson speaks about will prepare you to get the most out of the intensive.

- The value of the information, life skills, purpose of marriage and individual accountability to God, perspective altering hope and faith makes this seminar priceless. I believe it can repair any marriage, even the ones beyond human aide and current desire to do so. I am so thankful to have this available to me, my husband and our children, I would love to do it again!
- For me to say our experience was life-altering is no exaggeration! I've already had opportunities to revert back to my old self, using the old "tools"... but, through the power of the Holy Spirit, at the direction of the Love & Respect (biblical!) principles, genuine love has been the result, praise God!
- Envisioning our Savior on the cross - the torment He willingly received for us... it's absolutely mind-blowing that I've permitted trivial preferential issues to rob us of what He's called us to; sapping our marriage of the Holy Spirit's powerful connection in our lives!

Accommodations:

- A great place - would love to go back!
- The Cove was exemplary! Staff were wonderful; the perfect setting for this type of event.
- It is a very beautiful and peaceful place to meditate.
- Excellent location and atmosphere. Made for this type of event.
- The location and accommodations couldn't have been better.
- You picked the perfect location. We couldn't have been happier. It was a very healing place, and the connection with Emerson and Billy Graham made it even more special. The resort quality food and comfortable lodging made it easier to focus on all of the important work at hand. Great choice!!
